ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

My heartfelt thanks to my guide, Dr. Padma Kumari.P for her neverending support throughout this journey. Her wisdom and insight have shaped this research. She has been a strong pillar of support through many anxious moments and times of uncertainty. Her positive outlook to life has not only helped me complete this research but has also made me a better person.

My gratitude to Dr. Tony Sam George, Professor and Head of the Department of Psychology, Christ University for his motivation to take up PhD at Christ University and the encouragement at many important milestones of this research.

A special thanks to Dr. H. Chandrashekar, Professor and Head of Department of Psychiatry for his inspiration and timely help during this research.

I would also extend my appreciation to Dr. Shiva Kumar who has been instrumental in shaping this research, Dr. Paulomi for her help in formulating the therapy.

A special mention of friends who have played important roles namely Vijaya, Keerti, Joana, Serah Rashmi, Nisha, Kishore, Rachel and Pavana.

I would like to express my gratitude to the administrative staff, staff of medical records and doctors of St. John’s Medical College and Shankara Hospital who gave me permission to collect data.

Last but not the least I acknowledge God’s hand from the beginning to the end. This has been possible only because God has been the anchor in the rough seas.

A special mention of the support of my family, my husband, who valued this research, my daughter for releasing me to do my work at important junctures, my parents whose dream I could fulfil, in-laws, sister and brother in law, brother and sister in law. Their unconditional support and strength has brought me this far.
To all the patients who were willing to be part of this research, their participation has made this possible. The memory of the sessions will forever be etched in my heart.
