

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am grateful the Honorable Vice Chancellor, Christ University, Father Thomas C Mathew and to the Pro-Vice Chancellor, Christ University, DrFr Abraham V M for giving me the opportunity to pursue my PhD program in Christ University, Bengaluru.

I would like to sincerely thank my research guide Dr Ganesh L, Associate Professor, Institute of Management, Christ University for his consistent help and guidance throughout my research work. With gratitude, I also thank Dr S. SrikantaSwamy, Additional Director, (Retd), Centre for Research, Christ University for the guidance during initial times.

I take this opportunity to thank Prof. Emmanuel P.J, HOD, Department of Economics, Christ University for his motivation and constant support whenever I approached him. I also thank the faculty members of Department of Economics for their encouragement throughout my work.

I would like to thank DrAmalenduJyotishi, Professor, Amrita School of Business for sharing his valuable time by providing various inputs which tremendously helped in shaping my research.

I thank Dr Tony, Additional Director, Centre for Research, Christ University for his guidance on formatting the thesis.

I thank Dr Sebastian and Mr. James from Centre for Research, Christ University for their wonderful help all these five years in handling document work.

I would especially like to thank all the Tibetan respondents for their kind gesture and the Tibetan government for their assistance during period of data collection. I thank my friend Mrs. Maduri Suresh for boosting my self-confidence and sharing her immense knowledge.

I thank my late father who inspired for continuing further study in order to work respectfully in the society. I thank my entire family especially my elder brother Younten Phurbu for financial help throughout my study period.

Tenzin Namgha