ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Bringing out this dissertation, in its present form has been an interesting and challenging experience. Facing this challenge would not have been possible without the support and understanding of many. They have eased my efforts and I am indebted to them.

At the outset, I thank God Almighty for the everlasting love and grace, for giving me insights and also sustaining them throughout the study period, and guiding me to complete this study successfully for his glory. I extend my sincere thanks to, Blessed Kuriakose Elias Chavara, our founder for creating an opportunity to complete this study.

I extend my sincere thanks to my guide Dr. S. Srikanta Swamy, Director, Centre for Research, Christ University, who has been a constant source of inspiration, a mentor to me is a true personification of an ideal teacher, his dedication, commitment, scholarly approach and concern for guiding consistently has helped me to complete this study successfully on time, with a joyous heart I extend my heartfelt gratitude to him.

I thank, Dr. (Fr) Thomas. C. Mathew, Vice Chancellor, Christ University, Bangalore, and Dr. (Fr) Abraham, Pro-Vice – Chancellor for their constant support and encouragement.

I also place on records my sincere thanks to all my professors, Dr. (Fr) Kurian Kachappally, Dr. (Fr) Shaji Chackalackal , Dr. Kennedy Andrew Thomas, Dr. Tony Sam George, for all the rich experiences they provided during this course.
I take this opportunity in thanking all the principals, teaching staff and students of all Government, Aided and Private Secondary schools of Bangalore city, for extending their cooperation and help for conducting this study.

My special thanks to the Library staff of Christ University, Bangalore University, Mahatma Gandhi University and Mt.Carmel College of Teacher Education, Kottayam, Kerala, for all their services.

My sincere thanks to Rev.Sr.Teresa Martin, my principal and all my colleagues of Mount Carmel H.S.S.Kottayam, for their co-operation and encouragement.

Finally, I have to thank a few, who have stood by me namely;

My Parents, especially, my mother Gracy Sebastian for standing by me throughout this whole process.

My in laws, P.M. Thomas and Saramma Thomas for always supporting me for higher education.

My husband P.T.Mathew for getting stressed out, in pushing me to study for the course.My boys,Thommykunju and Joekuttan for gracefully sacrificing their playtime for me.

My Brothers, Raju Joy, Biju joy and family for showing keen interest and urging me to finish this course.I also thank my wonderful sister Meera Joy and family for their endless encouragement, and for being my best friend.