ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

My heartfelt thanks to my guide and mentor Dr. Anuradha.S whose continuous support and hand-holding has helped me to reach this milestone. She has held me through my anxious and uncertain moments with her positive words and cheer. Despite her busy schedule she met me on the given day and time and went through my work very diligently. I was able to complete this enormous task only because of her steadfast commitment, her immense faith in me that I would finish even when I felt doubtful. This journey with mam has been one of fulfilled confidence, intense learning, and deep insight. Thank you, ma’am!

My gratitude to Dr. Tony Sam George, Associate Professor, and Head of the Department of Psychology, CHRIST (Deemed to be University) who motivated me to stick on when I went through difficult times and was always available for any feedback needed. I would also like to thank all the faculty of the Department of Psychology whose suggestions and inputs helped me to better my work.

I thank Dr. S Srikanta Swamy, Former Additional Director, Center for Research, CHRIST (Deemed to be University) who was a constant source of inspiration and encouragement.

I extend my thanks to Mr. Sreekumar Nair, Librarian who was always available to provide support when I needed. I would also like to thank Mr. James Assistant Coordinator, Centre for Research for his prompt reply to all queries.

I would like to thank all the school heads who gave me permission to conduct the study in their school and connected me to the fathers. My gratitude to all the amazing fathers who took time from their schedules and consented to be part of this study. This project could not have been completed without them.

A very special thanks to Jayashree, Rita ma’am, William, Sharon, Padma, Uttara and Gayatri who have supported me in many ways and always enquired about my work and progress.

Without the unending support of the most important people in my life - my family this study wouldn’t have been possible. My husband Jagan who has been an absolute and unwavering pillar of strength and emotional support all through and held me when I felt I couldn’t go on. My children for their humour and support that helped me to complete the work. Thanks, Shivani, Nikhil, Mridula for being the joy around me. To the fathers in my life – my father and my father in law who always encouraged me to pursue academics and learning.

A deep and profound sense of gratitude to MY GOD AND ALMIGHTY whose blessings and the loving hands have helped me reach here. I remain grateful.

VIJAYA JAGAN